

Table of Contents

Editorial Board	iii
Table of Cases	ix

ARTICLES

Challenges Facing Workforce Training in Canada: Policy Perspectives for the Future — Jean Charest	1
Fiduciary Mechanics — Robert Flannigan	25
Unions Without Borders: Recent Developments in the Theory, Practice and Law of Transnational Unionism — Alan Hyde & Mona Ressaissi	47

SPECIAL SECTION – NEW CHALLENGES IN TEACHING LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT LAW

Foreword	105
Harry and the Steelworker: Teaching Labour Law to Non-Lawyers — David J. Doorey	107
The “Complexification” of Labour Law and Its Teaching — Stephanie Bernstein	129
Teaching Canadian Labour and Employment Law in the Globalized New Economy: Ruminations of an Aging Neophyte — Bruce P. Archibald	139

SPECIAL SECTION ON LABOUR LAW AND THE GLOBAL WORKPLACE – PAPERS FROM THE ANNUAL UWO LABOUR LAW CONFERENCE, 2006

Foreword	157
Labour Law and the Future of Social Europe — Manfred Weiss	159
Anti-Discrimination and Human Rights Standards in Europe: Lessons from the European Social Model — Hazel Oliver	187

Global Labour Policy as Social Policy — Kerry Rittich	227
A Many-Headed Dragon: Growing Pluralism in Labour Policy and Regulation in China — Anil Verma, Jing Wang & Stephen Frost	277

COMMENTARY ON CASES, LEGISLATION AND POLICY

La protection constitutionnelle du droit à la négociation collective et le réaménagement du régime légal de représentation collective dans le secteur des affaires sociales du Québec: C.S.N. c. Procureur général du Québec — Pierre Verge	305
The Supreme Court, Collective Bargaining and International Law: A Reply to Brian Langille — Roy J. Adams	317
Evaluating the Implications of Honda Canada v. Keays — Geoffrey England	329
The Fiduciary Duty of Departing Employees — Robert Flannigan	357
Fraser v. Ontario and International Human Rights: A Comment — Roy J. Adams	379